Special Programs

Groundhog Day Movie

Celebrate Groundhog Day with a twist at the library on February 2, 2023, at 1:30 PM! Join us for a special screening of the iconic film "Groundhog Day" (PG) – a hilarious time-loop classic. Popcorn, soda, & a bit of Bill Murray's comedic charm await you for an afternoon of community laughter.

Drop In Studio Time

The Red Earth Room will be equipped with coloring books, art paper, canvases, ceramic gnomes, fairy doors, paints, pencils, and various crafting supplies. An open space to come create, grow, and laugh with others. Feel free to bring snacks to enjoy!

Crime & Cocoa!

Come help us solve a "cold case" while enjoying some hot cocoa!

Recurring Programs

Friends Of The Library Board Meeting

The public is welcome to attend all FOL meetings. Learn more about friends on our website. -> <https://enid.okpls.org/friends>

Let's Talk About History

Discussion on the women's movements of 1910 in Oklahoma.

Research With A Historian

Archive Tours of the material available. On staff historian will show you how to research using the library resources.

US Citizenship Test Prep

Classes to assist in preparation for the Naturalization Test & interview process.

Sit & Stitch

Bring your handwork project and immerse yourself in a therapeutic third space.

SAIL Fitness Class

Join us every Wednesday and Friday at noon at the Enid Public Library for Staying Active and Independent for Life (SAIL). A tailored routine for older adults focusing on enhancing strength, balance, & fitness to promote an active & independent life.

Easy Yoga

A yoga session suitable for all ages & mobility levels. Bring your own yoga mat or use one provided. Improve your range of motion, strength, & well-being in a welcoming third space.

Banned Or Challenged Book Club

We read books that have been historically banned or challenged at schools or libraries. This month we will discuss Animal Farm by George Orwell

Closed-Door Romance Club

Do you like romance books with little to no spice? Pick up a copy of The Roommate Situation by Katie Bailey

Haven't Got A Clue Mystery Book Club

The Agathas by Kathleen Glasgow—a riveting tale unraveling the intricacies of friendship, trauma, and the pursuit of justice as four determined girls unite to expose the unsettling secrets of their small town.

Sci-Fi & Fantasy Book Club

Cruel Prince by Holly Black follows the mortal, 17-year-old Jude Duarte as she becomes embroiled in the perilous political conspiracies of the immortal Faerie realm.

Dungeons & Dragons

Play D&D with us! Two Tables; a single session group & on going campaigns.

Teen Crafts

The Teen Space will be equipped with various crafting and creative supplies. Bring your friends and enjoy an open space to come create, grow, and laugh. Feel free to bring your own projects to work on!

Baby & Me

Parents & grandparents join us for this new program in the Great Plains room. This short program will focus on babies caregivers & highlight playing time music & a short story.

Junior Mad Scientist

Open to elementary aged children who are interested in doing hands-on science. Signup by Monday Feb 5th. Supplies are purchased based on the planned attendance. This is a limited capacity program that we don't want anyone to miss out on.

Toddler Time

Join us for stories, music, and movement in the Children's Area. This session is for children ages 0 – 36 months.

Story Time

Join us for stories, music, and movement in the Children's Area. This session is for children ages 4 – 6 years old.

Elementary Book Club & Movie

Join us in the Great Plains Room to discuss our January selection, Shiloh by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor. The discussion will be followed by the movie, based on the book.

Craft Drop In

Stop by the children's area & do a weekly craft that goes with story time. Crafts are geared towards preschool & elementary age children.
